Halsbury’s Laws of England

What is Halsbury’s Laws of England?

The Halsbury’s Laws of England is an authoritative encyclopaedia of law of England and Wales. It provides the only comprehensive narrative statement of the law of England and Wales, containing law derived from every source. Written by or in conjunction with leading lawyers, both practitioners and academics, it ensures that users benefit from a wealth of knowledge and experience. It covers every proposition of English law (whether statutory or common law), is divided into alphabetically arranged subjects, making it convenient to use and includes several indexes.

Date and Content Coverage

The AUT Library has hardcopy volumes of the 4th edition (originally published as 58 volumes from 1973 and now 80 volumes, also with a selective number of reissued volumes from 1988). The Library has ceased updating of the hardcopy volumes.

Note: From 2008, new replacement volumes are issued under a 5th edition and continue to be published and updated as before. The Library is not updating to the 5th edition in hardcopy.

The online version via LexisNexis NZ is regularly updated by a monthly service as the 4th edition is updated / replaced by the 5th edition.

Online content is identical to the print – volumes for each subject A-Z from Administrative Law to Wills and Intestacy

Follow the rules set out in chapter 6.5 Legal Encyclopaedias when citing Halsbury’s Laws of England. There are different rules for Print and Online Editions.

See Rule 6.5.1 for Hardcopy Edition

The general format for citing legal encyclopaedias (except Laws of New Zealand) is as follows:

Eg:

Halsbury’s Laws of England (2nd ed, 1932) vol 5 Companies at [286].

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Edition</th>
<th>Reissue</th>
<th>Year of publication</th>
<th>Volume/ binder no. (if needed)</th>
<th>Topic name</th>
<th>Pin-point</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Halsbury’s Laws of England</td>
<td>(2nd ed,</td>
<td></td>
<td>1932)</td>
<td>vol 5</td>
<td>Companies</td>
<td>at [286]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>reissue,</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>reissue,</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

See Rule 6.5.2 for Online Edition

Cite the online editions of legal encyclopaedias the same way as hardcopy editions but add “online ed” after the year of publication:

Eg:
