Professional development resources – New Zealand

Ako Aotearoa: National Centre for Tertiary Teaching Excellence
Good examples of research into best practices in teaching and learning. Research includes transitions from secondary school to tertiary education and the workplace. A lot of research into reflective practice and developing reflection skills for professional growth.

Example research:

- Hei Toko i Te Tukunga - Enabling Māori learner success https://akoaotearoa.ac.nz/hei-toko
- Learning design and teaching strategies https://akoaotearoa.ac.nz/topics/term/17
- Learner access and pathways https://akoaotearoa.ac.nz/topics/term/24
- Understanding assessment anxiety during the student transition to university https://akoaotearoa.ac.nz/research-register/list/understanding-assessment-anxiety-during-student-transition-university
